- Stall arrangements for on site stabling in barns, limited, must book ahead of time. Please contact Sandy Ewing. We have limited stabling, please book early. Stabling is $12/night/stall. Please leave your stall stripped. Stalls must be pre-paid to be reserved.
- We do not have extra stalls for day use, please book ahead if stall is needed for day time.
- If you are stabling in camping area, please contact/pay campground attendant. Camping is $17/night in the wilderness camping. You must supply your own panels/electric wire, etc.
- No entries or stall reservations will be accepted by phone, only by regular mail. Entry fees cannot be paid online and must be sent regular mail.
- All exhibitors must pay the gate fee and if camping, must camp in designated areas and pay camping fee.
- Stallions can only be shown or ridden by Senior competitors. Stallions must be stabled off grounds.
- All riders under 18 must wear standard ASTM/SEI approved helmets with chin strap anytime while mounted on the fairgrounds.
- Please be mindful of all users and visitors to our fairgrounds and walk your horse anywhere in the barnyards and in alley going to arena.
- Please obey all signage on site, it is there to help people be safe and to know how best to use the facility. There are many groups sharing space and resources, please be courteous and helpful.
- Many of the visitors/spectators at the fairgrounds do not know animals the way you do, please watch out for them and if they are doing something unsafe, politely ask them to stop what they are doing and explain why - every bit helps!

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE STAGING AND PARKING MAY BE DIFFERENT THIS YEAR. PLEASE CHECK WITH PARKING ATTENDANTS OR GATE PERSONNEL WHEN YOU ARRIVE. THANK YOU
